The flowers on the altar today are to the Glory of God and in memory of Alfred Saullo on the anniversary of his birth, given by Diana and Joseph Saullo.

OUR SYMPATHY AND LOVE are extended to Bob Boynton and his family at the death of his father on June 4th. Funeral services were held this past week in Durham, NC. We remember Our Hope in the Resurrection to Life Eternal, made real through Our Savior, Jesus Christ.

OUR PRAYERS AND BEST WISHES are with Christopher and Ariel (Miller) Overcash, who were married on June 1st. Pastor John officiated at the ceremony which was held in Salisbury. We rejoice with the couple and with their family and friends at this blessed event!

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR Minister of Faith Formation, Liz Fisher, who was re-elected to Synod Council at last weekend's Synod Assembly in Raleigh. We will publish a summary of the events of this year's Assembly in the July Newsletter.

Connecting the dots

Commencement speeches and greeting cards are full of advice for graduates, yet good intentions and careful plans can't guarantee a perfect life — whatever that might mean.

“You can't connect the dots looking forward,” said Steve Jobs. “You can only connect them looking backwards. So you have to trust that the dots will somehow connect in your future. You have to trust in something — your gut, destiny, life ...”

As Christians, we can do more than that: We can trust in God. Yes, he may speak to us through a “gut” feeling, and our eternal “destiny” is assured. And we know that life, not death, will win out. But recent grads — and all of us — need not just sit and wait to see how the dots of our lives will someday connect. God has shown us through Scripture, the church and, above all, Jesus that the dots connect this way: from God's heart, to Jesus' sacrifice for us, to our entry into relationship with God, to our heart and finally to our own loving outreach to others.

Whatever shape your education, work and family take through the years, “commence” with this: God has drawn your life to connect with him and your neighbors. If you follow those Spirit-etched lines, you'll be fine.
