HOME: Jane Ritchie, Allen Brantley (Lake house)

HOSPITAL: Linda Robinson (CMC-NE)

OUR PRAYERS OF LOVE AND SYMPATHY are with the family of long-time Kimball Memorial Member Nancy Link, who departed this life on July 30th. Funeral services were held here at Kimball Memorial on this past Wednesday. We remember Our Christian Hope in the Promise of the Resurrection, made real in Jesus Christ...our Savior and Lord.

IT'S WITH GREAT JOY that we welcome the following new members into our congregation today: Savannah Kate Baucom and Ella Sophia Baucom join us via the Sacrament of Holy Baptism. They are both sponsored by their families this morning. Kay Cress joins us by transfer this morning...she is sponsored by Louise Moser. John Pendleton also joins us by transfer as do family members Jon Todd and Jodie Hott and Savannah Hott - all of whom are sponsored by Bryana Hott. And Parker Fremont Goldstein joins us via Holy Baptism...he is sponsored by his family this morning. We will have full information on these new members in our September Newsletter. Please take a moment to introduce yourself to these new families today!

WE'VE RECEIVED A VERY NICE message from the NC Synod thanking us for our generous gift to the World Hunger Appeal at this Summer's Synod Assembly. Our gift was in the top 3 congregational gifts received for World Hunger this year at the Assembly! We appreciate our members' generosity in making this important gift possible, as we work hard to be Christ's hands and heart in this world. Thank you!

A NEW WAY TO DO WELCA SURVEY—PLEASE NOTE: THERE ARE BOXES WHERE COMPLETED SURVEYS CAN BE PLACED & ALSO BLANK COPIES (IF YOU HAVE NOT YET RECEIVED ONE) LOCATED BOTH OUTSIDE OF THE SANCTUARY AND IN THE WELCOME CENTER LOCATED IN THE COMMONS. This input from all ladies of Kimball will help us determine a better way to structure our women's activities and service. Thank you for caring enough to take a moment to share!

A HUGE thank you for everyone that attended camp. We had 32 1st-8th graders as well as 24 Preschoolers attend camp! It was a wonderful week! In the coming weeks as we get ready for Fall, look for Wednesday nights to start back after Labor Day!! Have a great rest of the Summer!

AGAPE DAY CAMP- THANK YOU

We would like to thank those that donated, prayed for and those that helped with our staff!! It was a wonderful week filled with Love and lots of learning about how we walk wet. If you see one of our young people ask them what their favorite thing was about Camp!

High School Mission Trip

OUR WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY begins on September 13th. Pastor John will lead us in studying the Book of Romans in this 500th year of the Reformation. We'll join Lutherans through out the NC Synod as we celebrate this special anniversary of the Reformation. Other activities sponsored by the Synod are upcoming this Fall...Please carefully read your bulletins and newsletters for more information about these activities.

YOUTH SCHEDULES for the Fall will be coming out very soon. Watch for emails and mailings for our High School and Middle School activities for this coming school year!

CARVER CORNER

Opportunities to Serve

Purchase a $5.00 gift card to surprise some of our Carver teachers as an "Extra Blessing" during the upcoming Welcome Back to School breakfast.

August 6 & 13 during Agape time we will have cards available for members to write a little note to attach to the Welcome Back baskets. Please take the time to write a brief note and welcome our teachers back!

August 19th WORK DAY at G.W. CARVER (more information to follow)

August 20th during Agape, we will be assembling Welcome Back baskets. We will have all the materials ready for you and your family to put one together!

August 24th from 7-8 pm we will need volunteers to put table clothes on tables, put out placemats (made by our own children) and baskets as center pieces.

August 25th from (8-11am) help is needed to maintain the breakfast buffet, make our guests feel welcome, and clean up.

We have also set up a designated fund for G.W. Carver to be used as needs come up for the school.
